Our mission is to observe families and friends sharing in the art of fishing, spending time together, experiencing the same joy and excitement that Jeramy came to know as a child and became passionate about as an adult.

"I attended a day of fishing in 2008 in honor of this young man. We had a great day and it felt really good to show our support for the family. That would have been enough for me but something else wonderful happened. I realized how much my son and I enjoyed spending time together just hanging out and doing something simple like fishing. We have since spent many fun filled hours exploring the lakes and rivers in our local area and getting to know each other better. Don't miss this opportunity to spend some quality time with your kids." ~Moki Smith
